Developing EU–Japan Relations in a Changing Regional Context

A Focus on Security, Law and Policies

Edited by Dimitri Vanoverbeke, Leuven University, Belgium, Takao Suami, Waseda University, Japan, Takako Ueta, International Christian University, Japan, Nicholas Peeters, Waseda University, Japan, and Frederik Ponjaert, Université Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium

Series: Globalisation, Europe, Multilateralism series

This book addresses the potential role of the EU, in cooperation with Japan, to craft a stable and prosperous mode of governance in the Asian region. In today's globalized world seemingly defined by waxing Chinese power and waning American power, the book reflects the lack of appreciation for an EU-Japan concert in maintaining and developing multilateral principles. It aims towards fortifying this relationship by acknowledging that in order to enhance the credibility and capabilities of such an alliance, it is necessary to take stock of where the partnership stands today, what kind of obstacles still need to be overcome and which options have been left untouched.
